

Obituary

Born: Monday, June 2, 1958

Died: Tuesday, September 10, 2019

The morning of Tuesday, September 10th, 2019 Sydney Picolo (Tina) released her spirit at the age of 61 back to the universe. She was born to Chuck and Sally Picolo in 1958.

Shortly after graduating from Whitmer high school in 1976, she moved to Arizona. Before long, her adventurous Spirit found her way to Alaska where she landed a job with the University of Alaska. Along her journey she became involved with the Palace Saloon playing piano for the live comedy shows they put on. She took advantage of the opportunities Alaska had to offer, fishing, camping, enjoying the northern lights and just being thankful for living in such a beautiful place. However, she eventually found her way back to Arizona. There she worked for several law firms as a legal assistant, loving her work and taking pride of a "job well done".

Once again, she found herself back in Fairbanks and lived there for approximately 10 years before she made the big decision to move back to her home, Toledo.

She was so happy to reconnect with old friends and the cousins she grew up with. After taking some needed time off and getting settled in with the help, love and support of her cousins, she found a job she loved with Anspach Law as a Legal Assistant; making new friends along the way.

She enjoyed playing her piano, going to the lake, watching baseball, playing pool, snuggling with her beloved cat, Boo.

Syd is survived by her loving feline companion, Boo; sisters Candace Webb and Toni Howe; brother Craig Picolo; loving cousins, John, Mike and Pat; and many nieces, nephews and cousins.
