

Obituary

Born: Tuesday, November 11, 1952

Died: Sunday, February 7, 2021

Phil J. Baranski, Sr., 68, passed away on February 7, 2021. He was born on November 11, 1952 to Robert and Theresa (Wolniewicz) Baranski in Toledo. Phil dedicated his life to helping others. There was never a time where he refused to lend a helping hand or invite anyone in for a drink and a friendly conversation. Phil worked tirelessly for M&M Heating and Cooling for over 30 years, making sure the families in the Toledo area were comfortable. Phil was also passionate about his kids and especially his grandkids, always attending endless amounts of volleyball, basketball, karate, cross country, band, and golf to support them. Phil was a skilled woodworker, carpenter, deck builder, and handyman. He was also known as "The Foreman", since he was the go-to person in the family for all projects big and small.

Once retired, Phil spent his time fishing at the Merickel-Farley Trout Club, feeding the less fortunate at the Cherry Street Mission, and making sure his family was always taken care of.

Phil was preceded in death by his parents and daughter, Carrie Baranski. He will be dearly missed by his loving wife of 48 years, Robin (Rollins) Baranski; children, Jen (Joe) Howe and Phil (Jeni) Baranski, Jr.; grandchildren, Kylee, Charlie, Olivia, P.J., Molly, and Sam; brother, Paul (Sherry) Baranski; sister, Pamela (Kenneth) Freeman; and extended family and friends.

Visitation with social distancing will be held on Sunday from 4-8:00 p.m., with prayers services at 7:00 p.m., at the W.K. Sujkowski & Son Funeral Home, 3838 Airport Hwy. A Funeral Mass will be held on Monday, February 15, 2021 at St. Patrick of Heatherdowns Church at 11:00 a.m. (please visit toledostpats.org and click on virtual Mass to live stream services). Interment will follow at Resurrection Cemetery. Memorial tributes may be directed to the Cherry Street Mission or St. Patrick of Heatherdowns Church.
